

Our New Look

We are creating a fresh and bold new look for Kallidus.

Disclaimer

While we're enthusiastic about sharing our future plans, please understand that this roadmap is a flexible guide rather than a firm commitment.

The features and any timelines presented are our current best estimates and may evolve as we respond to customer feedback, market dynamics, and technological advancements.

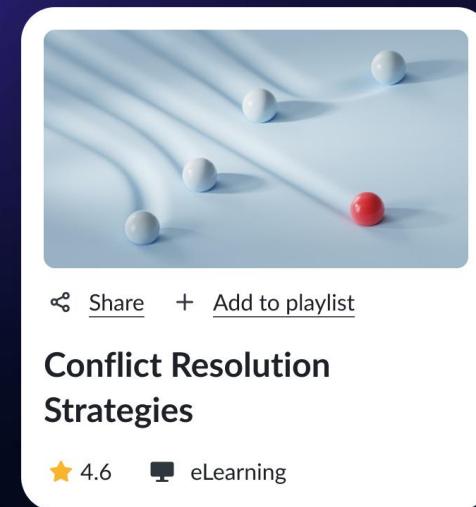

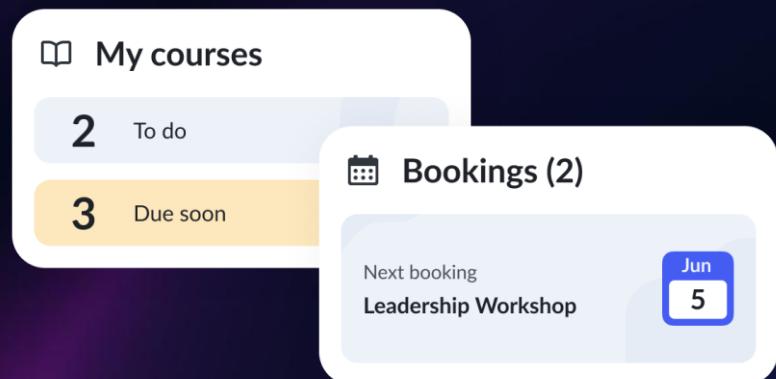

We may adjust, modify, or remove items to ensure we're delivering the most value to our users. This roadmap is provided for informational purposes only and should not be considered binding.

New User Interface

We're introducing a fresh new look for Kallidus that's simple, clear, and designed with our users in mind. This is more than a facelift. It's the first step toward a unified, modern experience across all products. Our fresh new interface makes it easier to get results and unlock potential.

Why do this?

00
0+

Consistency

Increasing consistency across our products improves their ease of use.

Speed

Our new user interface increases our development velocity by +50%.

Accessibility

We aim to achieve AA WCAG compliance for accessibility across our interfaces.

Future-proof

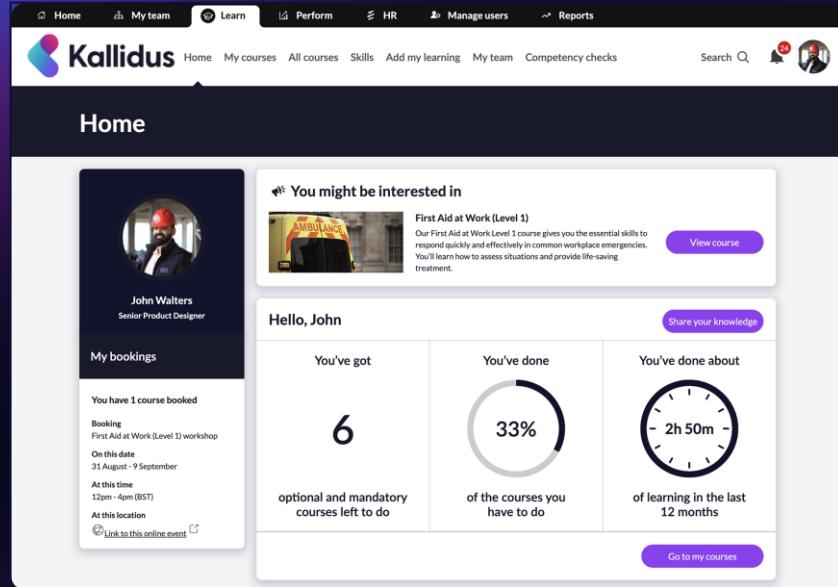

Our new interface design gives our products room to grow as they evolve.

How will this work?

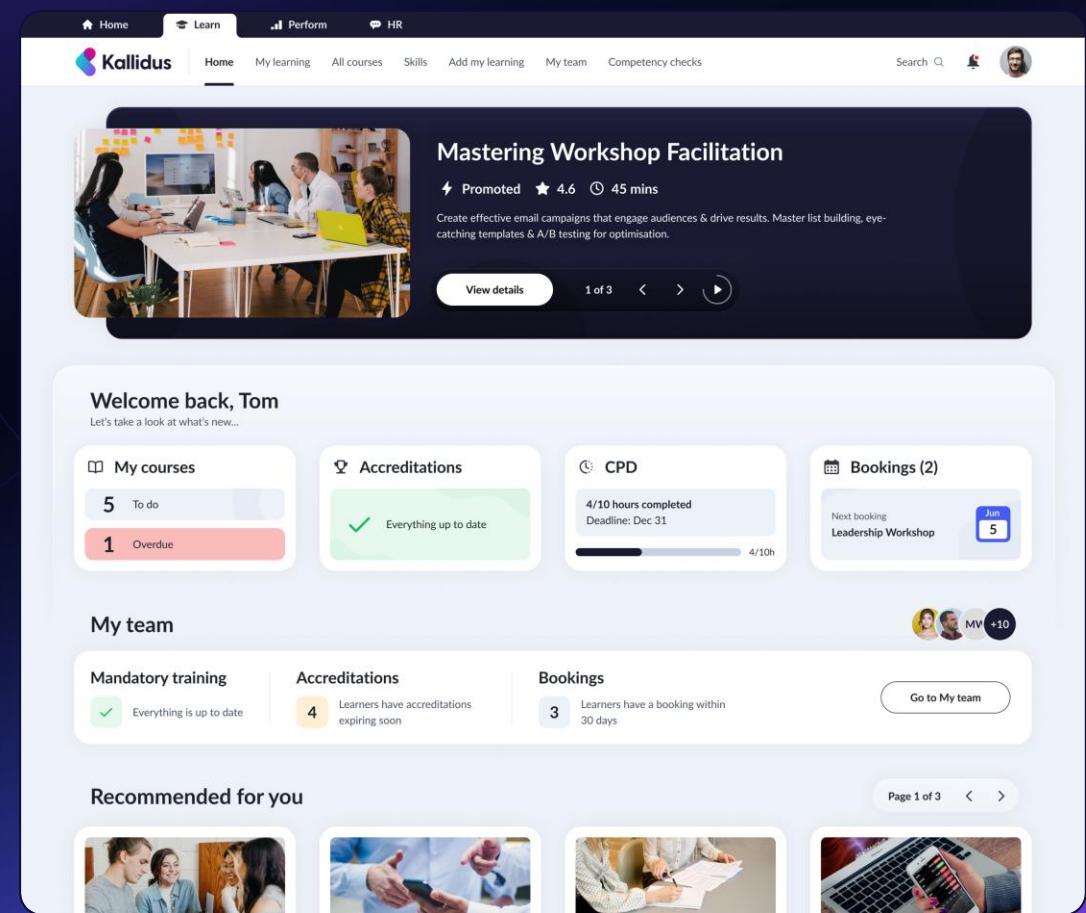

Rolling out our fresh new look

Rolling out our new look

You will see improvements to specific pages as we progress through the project. This will ensure you are getting the very best experience as soon as it is ready.

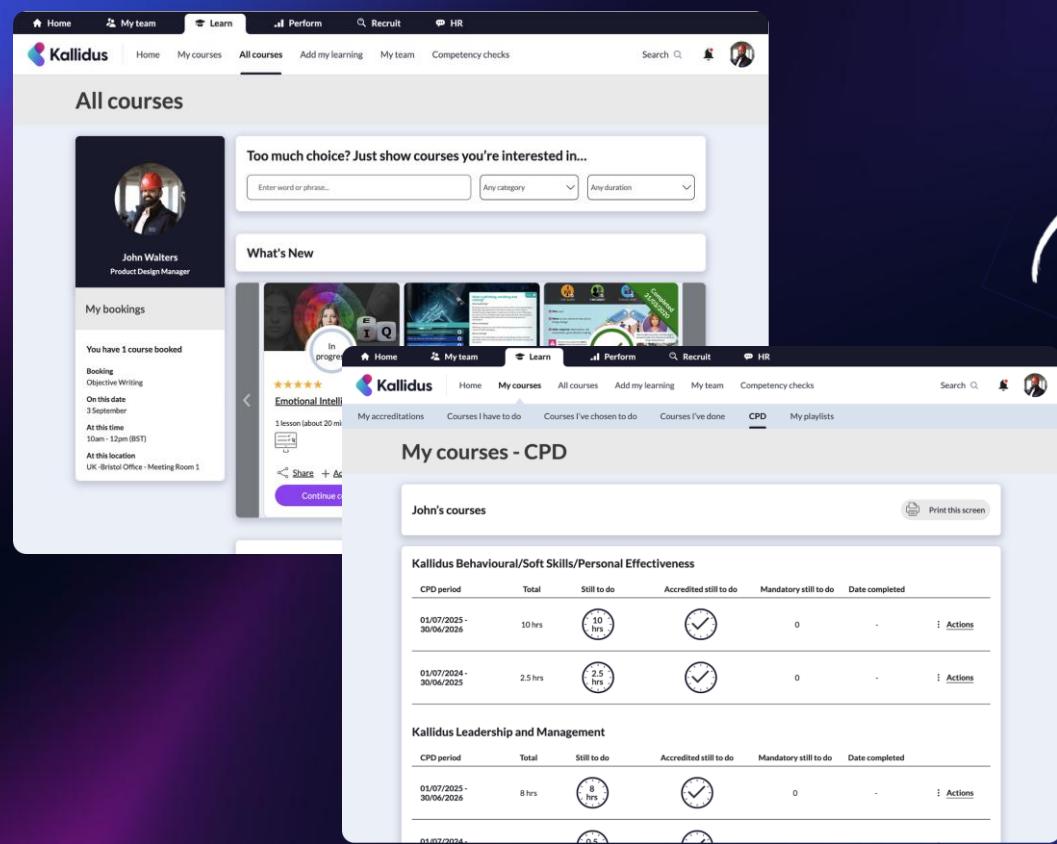

This screenshot shows the current Kallidus LMS home page. It features a dark header with navigation links: Home, My team, Learn, Perform, HR, Manage users, and Reports. Below the header is a search bar and a user profile icon. The main content area is titled 'Home' and includes a 'You might be interested in' section with a thumbnail for 'First Aid at Work (Level 1)'. It also displays a summary of the user's learning progress: 'Hello, John', 'You've got 6 optional and mandatory courses left to do', 'You've done 33% of the courses you have to do', and 'You've done about 2h 50m of learning in the last 12 months'. A purple 'View course' button is located in the 'You might be interested in' section.

This screenshot shows the updated Kallidus LMS home page. The layout is cleaner and more modern. The top navigation bar includes Home, Learn, Perform, HR, and a search bar. The main content area starts with a 'Welcome back, Tom' message and a 'What's new...' section. It then displays a course card for 'Mastering Workshop Facilitation' with a rating of 4.6 and a duration of 45 mins. Below this are sections for 'My courses', 'Accreditations', 'CPD', 'Bookings', and 'My team'. The 'My team' section includes 'Mandatory training', 'Accreditations', and 'Bookings' sub-sections. A 'Recommended for you' section at the bottom features four course thumbnails. A navigation bar at the bottom right shows 'Page 1 of 3' with previous and next buttons.

New & classic experiences

As improvements roll out, some pages will be updated, while others will remain the same. Over time, all pages in Learn and Perform will receive the new UI refresh.

My Details

New Performance Overview

The screenshot shows the Kallidus Performance dashboard. At the top, there are tabs for 'Learn' and 'Perform'. The 'Perform' tab is selected, showing a sub-menu with 'Dashboard', 'Objectives', 'Development', 'Reviews', 'Feedback', and 'My team'. The main area is titled 'Performance dashboard' with the subtitle 'My development journey, all in one place.' A 'September 2025 check-in' card shows a due date of 'Due in 5 days'. Below this, a message says 'You also have 2 reviews delegated to you to complete as a reviewer. View all here.' The dashboard is divided into several sections: 'Objectives' (Overall progress: 60%, 1 Overdue by 3 days, Pivotal), 'Development' (4 Activities in progress), 'Global objectives' (FY2026, People: Enable a high-performing, productive, and engaged workforce to drive scalable growth, 1 On track), 'Quick Actions' (Request feedback, Update progress, Grow your skills). At the bottom, there are links for 'Privacy policy' and 'Cookie policy'.
